SENATOR FRED CARSTENS: Mr. President and members, I put a motion on the desk this morning with reference to the assignment of LB 204, for hearing, I would like to know if it is appropriate to take this up at this time as long as we are on this.

SPEAKER: I think we will finish the dialogue here on Senator Carpenter's suggestion and apparently we have some other, then we will take your motion, Senator after we have final reading. It will be a piece of business on down the line. Alright, Thank you. Senator Stahmer did you wish to be recognized? This is in carrying on with Senator Carpenter dialogue?

SENATOR STAHMER: I'd like to touch on the issues raised by Senator Carpenter and it is my understanding I believe in talking at one time with the Attorney General that by a vote of this body we can with 25 votes instruct the Supreme Court to give a decision or an opinion on matters of concern to us, where we have reason to believe that there is some confusion and/or lack of understanding of what various provisions the constitution are, and I think it would not be inappropriate to
